

CLIL: ENGLISH AND LANGUAGE COMPETENCE FOR TEACHERS

This course is targeted at secondary school teachers who need to teach their subjects in English: its dual focus is classroom practice and language input. The course focuses on confidence and competence. Our goal is to provide you with more than just English, but the life skills, cultural fluency and confidence you need to become an influential communicator in English.

Course Content

MORNING LESSONS:

Language Competence Training (09:00 – 12:30)

As a group you explore practical and stimulating ways to make learning effective in the CLIL classroom. These sessions develop your skills and accuracy when it comes to communicating effectively in English.

AFTERNOON LESSONS:

Language Focus (13:30 – 15:45)

These two hours are dedicated to improving your general competence in English: comprehension, fluency and vocabulary extension. There are also opportunities to observe and feed back on English language classes and discuss best practice with our teachers.

Typical Areas of Focus

- ◆ The importance of functional language
- ◆ Developing and understanding task-based learning principles and techniques of correction, both written and oral
- ◆ Developing students' four skills
- ◆ Presentation and practice of new language
- ◆ Dealing with students' pronunciation
- ◆ Understanding learner motivation
- ◆ Using technology in the classroom
- ◆ Using project work in the classroom
- ◆ Testing and assessment
