Teacher Training Week - Southampton

Explore fresh, student-centred ideas for the classroom

Enjoy trips to Oxford and Salisbury

Stay in the city famous for the Titanic, 75 minutes from London.

Join us this summer for an inspiring teacher training course while discovering the south of England from an attractive and convenient base in Southampton.

The Lewis School has been helping students gain confidence with English since 1976. Let us share with you our ideas, insights and activities, drawn from our student-centred approach to teaching. You'll explore ways to engage and motivate your learners, putting the emphasis on the student and reducing teacher focus in the classroom. We'll also look at how to maximise opportunities to develop pronunciation, reading and listening skills, as well as using drama as an engaging tool for speaking practice.

Whether you're coming independently, or with a group of students at our Southampton Junior Centre next door, this is the perfect opportunity to combine leisure with training!
